

Westside Private Hospital

Suite 305 – 307, Level 3
32 Morrow Street
Taringa QLD 4066

Sunnybank Private Hospital

Suite 12A, McCullough Medical Centre
259 McCullough Street
Sunnybank QLD 4109

Wesley Private Hospital

Suite 39, Level 3, Wesley Medical Centre
40 Chasely Street
Auchenflower QLD 4066

T. (07) 3833 6747

F. (07) 3833 6729

E. TWang@hqclinic.com.au

Dr Tzu-yang Wang is a locally trained clinical and laboratory haematologist who specializes in a range of malignant and non-malignant blood disorders which include:

- Abnormal full blood counts including cytopenias
- Acute/chronic leukaemia
- Lymphoma
- Myeloma
- Myelodysplasia
- Abnormal lymphadenopathy
- Myeloproliferative disorders
- Haemostasis and thrombosis
- Iron deficiency/Overload
- Haemoglobinopathies

He graduated from University of Queensland with honours, subsequently completed his specialist training at the Royal Brisbane and Women's hospital. He is a fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians and the Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia.

He is heavily involved in teaching as senior lecturer with the University of Queensland as well as physician training. In addition, he engages in clinical research at the Princess Alexandra hospital.

Dr Tzu-yang Wang consults at Sunnybank Private Hospital, Greenslopes Private Hospital, The Wesley Hospital, Westside Private hospital as well as Princess Alexandra Hospital. He is also fluent in both English and Mandarin.

Professional Affiliations and Qualifications:

MBBS (Hons) - QLD, FRACP, FRCPA, B. Phty - QLD
Staff specialist, Princess Alexandra Hospital
Senior lecturer, University of Queensland
Pathologist, QML Pathology
Australasian Leukaemia & Lymphoma Group